Second defendant sentenced for Craigslist murder

Tryon Kincade pleaded guilty for robbery of James Vester

(Indianapolis, Ind.) Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced today that Tryon Kincade, 20, has been sentenced to 35 years with 28 years to be served in the Indiana Department of Correction and five years of community corrections for his involvement in the murder of James Vester on December 4, 2013. Tryon Kincade pleaded guilty on June 8 to three counts of Robbery.

Vester responded to a Craigslist ad regarding an Apple iPad. Upon arrival the victim came into contact with two young males who robbed him. During the robbery, one of the young males shot and killed James Vester.

Tyshaune Kincade, 19, pleaded guilty to Murder in April for his involvement in the incident and was sentenced to 50 years in the Indiana Department of Correction.

A charge of a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
